

Festive launch of the EEA and Norway Grants 2009-2014

Bjoern Rongevaer
Senior Advisor

Tallinn, 27 March 2012

Parallel panels: Children and Youth at Risk

Goals

- Reduction of social and economic disparities
- Promotion of bilateral relations

How

- Bilateral relationship established at programme development stage between Ministry of Education and Research with Estonian partners (Ministry of Justice, Ministry of Social Affairs) and KS
- Time for partners to get to know each other
- Map how and with what partner can contribute
- Determine roles and communication lines
- Agree on process and work plan

Parallel panels: Children and Youth at Risk

- Reduction of social and economic disparities
- Promotion of bilateral relations

Why

- Added value of bilateral relations
- Bilateral relations and reduction of disparities
- No perfect solution
- No size fits all
- Experience sharing for inspiration and motivation
- Learning and use of new knowledge for tailor made solution
- Partners role as facilitator and sparing partner

Parallel panels: Children and Youth at Risk

- From programme
- To projects

New partnerships for implementation

- Open calls
- Pre-defined project
- Small grants schemes

Bilateral relations at project level

- Identify partner
- Time for partners to get to know each other
- Map how and with what partner can contribute
- Determine roles and communication lines
- Agree on process and work plan